Restoration of concessions to the computer industry

*434. SHRI RAJNATH SINGH 'SURYA': Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether some of the concessions to the computer industry announced in (he budget this year have been offset to some extent by the EXIM Policy announced recently;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is a fact that prices of PCs would not come down as expected; and

(d) if so, whether it is proposed to restore these concessions?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI V. DHANANJAYA KUMAR) (a) and (b) No Sir, while the Budget has reduced import duties on several items related to computer industry, there has been no change in the importability of these items in the EXIM policy announced recently and they continue to be freely importable as before. Thus there is no adverse impact on account of EXIM policy changes on the duty concessions announced in the Budget for the computer industry.

(c) The prices of PCs largely depend on their configuartion and market forces. Reduction in duty rates is only one among the several factors affecting the prices of computers. The general trend has been a reduction in prices of PCs; or for the same price, there is upgradation in terms of configuration.

(d) Does not arise in view of the replies to parts (a), (b) and (c) above.
